CLASSIC ROCK CARES TO BENEFIT FAMILY RESOURCE CENTER

Go West Presents and 93.9 The Duck are teaming up to present the first annual Classic Rock Cares concert at The Church @117 in Manchester. Benefitting the Coffee County Schools Family Resource Center, the concert will feature Nashville classic rock favorites Zig Zag performing hits of the sixties, seventies, and eighties. The date of the show is Friday December 15th at 8pm.

Business owner Steve West is excited to be hosting the inaugural event. "This is our first year in this beautifully restored building which was built in 1894. We've got a great band and a great radio station to work with. And a non-profit organization doing good work. What a combination!"

Admission to the event is free with a donation of canned foods which will go to the food bank administered by the Family Resource Center.

"Coffee County Schools Family Resource Center strives to eliminate all barriers that may hinder student academic achievement. The canned food items donated will allow us to disburse among each of our schools' backpack programs ensuring our students in need do not go hungry. We are grateful for this opportunity and humbled to live in a community that puts the needs of our students first," said, Taylor Rayfield, Coordinator of Coffee County Schools Family Resource Center

93.9 Station manager Joe Abraham says, "We're excited to have teamed up with such a great venue, for such an important cause. Everyone involved has such a contagious passion for both music and our community - we're looking forward to being a part of such a wonderful event."
